TODAYS REFLECTION

We come to the wedding banquet of heaven by way of humility and charity. This is the fatherly instruction we hear in today's First Reading, and the message of today's Gospel.

Jesus is not talking simply about good table manners. He is revealing the way of the kingdom, in which the one who would be greatest would be the servant of all (see Luke 22:24-27).

This is the way He showed us, humbling Himself to come among us as a man (see Philippians 2:5-8), as one who serves, as the bearer of glad tidings to the poor (see Luke 4:18).

This is the way, too, that the Father has shown us down through the ages—filling the hungry, sending the rich away empty, lifting up the lowly, pulling down the proud (see Luke 1:52-53).

We again call to mind the Exodus in today's Psalm—how in His goodness the Lord led the Israelites from imprisonment to prosperity, rained down bread from heaven, made them His inheritance, becoming a "Father of orphans."

We now too have gained a share of His inheritance. We are to live humbly, knowing we are not worthy to receive from His table (see Luke 6:7; 15:21). We are to give alms, remembering we were ransomed from sin by the price of His blood (see 1 Corinthians 6:19-20).

The Lord promises that if we are humble we will be exalted and find favor with God; that if we are kind to those who can never repay us, we will atone for sins, and find blessing in the resurrection of the righteous.

We anticipate the fulfillment of those promises in every Eucharist, today's Epistle tells us. In the Mass, we enter the festal gathering of the angels and the firstborn children of God, the liturgy of the heavenly Jerusalem in which Jesus is the high priest, the King who calls us to come up higher (see Proverbs 25:6-7).

Yours in Christ,

Dr. Scott Hahn

Thank You

Dear Friends at St. Francis,

Thank you for your sympathy, visits, and flowers during our time of loss. All were a great comfort to us as we grieve Gary's untimely death. Thank you for caring!

"Invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind, the unwanted; blessed will you be because of their inability to repay you"

A wealthy parishioner noted to his pastor that Jesus dined with the rich and famous of his day. He asked, "Do you think Jesus would belong to an exclusive country club if he were here today?" The pastor answered, "I suspect he might, if he could afford it. But his guest would include people who could not afford it, people who need a bath and a new set of clothes, people who have not recently had a decent meal, people who are lame, who limp, or feel their way with a white cane." The pastor then said to his parishioner, "You belong to a very exclusive country club. Have you ever brought such a guest to your club?" The man said nothing. The pastor added, "When we leave Mass and go into God's world we are supposed to be Jesus present in that world. So, when we are at our exclusive country club, or any other group, Jesus is a member. We might want to start reviewing our guest list."

September Anniversaries

Ken & Jamie Farr	09/12	35 years
St Francis Borgia	09/30	64 years

During this month our efforts will focus on:

1. Giving Drink to the Thirsty.
2. Visit the Sick
3. Instruct the Ignorant

Sr. Alicia and Mickie Wright are planning on going to Honduras at the end of September for a missionary experience with "Water With Blessings". We would like to invite you to be a part of that mission by helping to support us on this journey both prayerfully and financially. It will cost each of us around $1500.00 to go and what other monies are remaining after our expenses are paid will go to purchase "water filters" for the "water women" we will be working with. Thank you so much for helping to support us in this ministry.

In God's love,

Sr. Alicia & Mickie Wright
