TODAYS REFLECTION

Because of his faith, the just man shall live. We hear in today's First Reading the original prophetic line made so central by St. Paul (see Romans 1:17; Galatians 3:11; Hebrews 10:38).

We are to live by faith in Christ who loved us and gave himself on the Cross for us (see Galatians 2:20).

The world, though, can seem to us as seventh-century Judah seemed to Habakkuk—in the control of God's enemies. The strife and discord we face in our own lives can sometimes cause us to wonder, as the prophet does, why God doesn't seem to hear or intervene when we cry for help.

We can't let our hearts be hardened by the trials we undergo. As today's Psalm reminds us: Israel forgot His mighty works, lost faith in the sound words of His promise. They tested God in the desert, demanding a sign.

But God didn't redeem Israel from Egypt only to let them die in the desert. And He didn't ransom us from futility only to abandon us in our trials. He is our God and we are the people He shepherds always—though at times His mercy and justice seem long delayed.

If we call on the Lord, as the Apostles do in today's Gospel, He will increase our faith, will stir to a flame the Holy Spirit who has dwelt within us since Baptism.

As Paul tells us in today's Epistle, the Lord will always give us the love and self-control we need to bear our share of hardship for the Gospel—with a strength that can come from God alone.

Our task is to continue doing what He has commanded—to love and to build up His kingdom—trusting that His vision still presses on to its fulfillment.

For His vision still has its time. One day, though we are but "unprofitable servants," we will be invited to eat and drink at our Master's table. It is that day we anticipate with each celebration of the Eucharist.

Yours in Christ,

Dr. Scott Hahn

“When you have done all you have been commanded, say,

‘We are unprofitable servants, we have done what we were obliged to do.’”

We begin life totally dependent on our parents and guardians. Some of us continue to expect others to do for us long after we are more than capable of doing for ourselves. When a father was asked by one his children to do something he would tell them, “Move your legs, then your arms, and wiggle your fingers.” Then he would tell them, “You look capable of doing it yourself.” When they really needed help, he was there for them. In today's Gospel the disciples asked Jesus to “Increase our faith.” He tells them, and us, to “ Move your legs, your arms and wiggle your fingers” He is teaching us that we have the gift of faith from God, but we must use our head and heart to grow in faith. He cannot do for us what only we can do for ourselves. A wise sage said, “God gave us two ends to use, one to think and one to sit. Success depends on which we use, heads we win, tails we loose.” God has given us the gifts of life, intelligence, reason and free will. Do we use those gifts to increase our faith in God? Or do we just sit there?

Ann Conn has graciously offered to be in charge of the collection of coats in October as our Year of Mercy project. All sizes needed especially infant and young children.

Ann said the need is great for specifically "WINTER" coats (no sweaters or hoodies)

We will collect during the month of October and store all the coats at St. Francis Parish Hall

Ann will insure that they are delivered

Ann's number is 270-389-2753 if you have questions for her.

THANK YOU, ANN!!!!!!
