TODAYS REFLECTION

A foreign leper is cleansed and in thanksgiving returns to offer homage to the God of Israel. We hear this same story in both the First Reading and Gospel today.

There were many lepers in Israel in Elisha's time, but only Naaman the Syrian trusted in God's Word and was cleansed (see Luke 5:12-14). Today's Gospel likewise implies that most of the ten lepers healed by Jesus were Israelites—but only a foreigner, the Samaritan, returned.

In a dramatic way, we're being shown today how faith has been made the way to salvation, the road by which all nations will join themselves to the Lord, becoming His servants, gathered with the Israelites into one chosen people of God, the Church (see Isaiah 56:3-8).

Today's Psalm also looks forward to the day when all peoples will see what Naaman sees—that there is no God in all the earth except the God of Israel.

We see this day arriving in today's Gospel. The Samaritan leper is the only person in the New Testament who personally thanks Jesus. The Greek word used to describe his "giving thanks" is the word we translate as "Eucharist."

And these lepers today reveal to us the inner dimensions of the Eucharist and sacramental life.

We, too have been healed by our faith in Jesus. As Naaman's flesh is made again like that of a little child, our souls have been cleansed of sin in the waters of Baptism. We experience this cleansing again and again in the Sacrament of Penance—as we repent our sins and beg and receive mercy from our Master, Jesus.

We return to glorify God in each Mass, to offer ourselves in sacrifice—falling on our knees before our Lord, giving thanks for our salvation.

In this Eucharist, we remember "Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David," Israel's covenant king. And we pray, as Paul does in today's Epistle, to persevere in this faith—that we too may live and reign with Him in eternal glory.

Yours in Christ,

Dr. Scott Hahn

Thank You!

Bulletin Bites!

"Ten were cleansed, were they not? Where are the other nine?"

On his way to Jerusalem ten lepers approached Jesus. They apparently had heard of Jesus and asked him to have pity. Jesus does not perform any special ritual or say a special prayer, but simply tells them to go show themselves to the priest to confirm that they no longer had leprosy. One of them, a Samaritan, seeks out Jesus to thank him. Only one out of ten made the effort to express gratitude. Jesus tells him his faith had cured him. In the course of our day family, friends, neighbors, teachers, co-workers and strangers do things for us. How often do we recognize their help and say "Thank you"? One out of ten is probably a high percentage. What is our percentage? How can we increase it? First, recognize that our life and all we have is a gift from God and thank God every day for what he has given us. Then say "Thank you" to everyone who does an act of kindness, and spend a few minutes at the end of each day remembering each act. Did we thank them? How did our benefactor react? How did we feel? Keep a record.
