TODAYS REFLECTION

The Lord is our guardian, beside us at our right hand, interceding for us in all our spiritual battles.

In today's Psalm we're told to lift our eyes to the mountains, that our help will come from Mount Zion and the Temple—the dwelling of the Lord who made heaven and earth.

Joshua and the Israelites, in today's First Reading, are also told to look to the hilltops. They are to find their help there—through the intercession of Moses—as they defend themselves against their mortal foes, the Amalekites.

By the staff of God, Moses bested Israel's enemies (see Exodus 7:8-12;8:1-2), parted the Red Sea (see Exodus 14:16) and brought water from the Rock (see Exodus 17:6).

The Cross of Jesus is the new staff of God, bringing about a new liberation from sin, bringing forth living waters from the body of Christ, the new Temple of God (see John 2:19-21; 7:37-39; 19:34; 1 Corinthians 10:4).

Like the Israelites and the widow in today's Gospel, we face opposition and injustice—at times from godless and pitiless adversaries.

We, too, must lift our eyes to the mountains—to Calvary and the God who will guard us from all evil.

We must pray always and not be wearied by our trials, Jesus tells us today. As Paul exhorts in today's Epistle, we need to remain faithful, to turn to the inspired Scriptures—given by God to train us in righteousness.

We must persist, so that when the Son of Man comes again in kingly power, He will indeed find faith on earth.

Yours in Christ,

Dr. Scott Hahn

Bulletin Bites!

"Stewarding our Gifts: Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life"

Persistence in prayer is the theme of today's readings. In the first reading the Israelites waged a successful battle as long as Moses was able to hold the staff of God with upraised arms, even if his assistants were helping him. Jesus' parable of the widow and the dishonest judge shows how persistence is vital when seeking justice. God, in his infinite goodness, will bless us with all we need when we open our hearts to Him. As God answers our needs we can extend ourselves to serve the needs of others. May we be always willing to ask the Lord for help and hear the pleas when others need our help.
