“The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the Love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all!”

At the beginning of our celebration of the Eucharist, and whenever we sign ourselves in the name of our Triune God, we proclaim our belief in Three Persons in One God, Father Son and Holy Spirit. Their eternal and mutual relationship of Giver, Given and Gift is a witness and a challenge to us to share in that relationship with them and with each other and with all others. The Mystery of the Trinity invites us to acknowledge that we are gift from God. All that we are and have has been given to us for our own benefit and enjoyment, and for us to share with others. As gift, given, and giver we share in the life of the Trinity and we make present to others the Mystery of the Trinity. Being a cheerful and joy filled giver begins with being grateful for what we have been given. And so we sign ourselves with a cross as we say, “In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit ” as a constant reminder that we are gift, given and giver.

TODAYS REFLECTION

This weekend, we celebrate the Trinity, a mystery which stands at the very heart of the faith. The doctrine of the Trinity is a technical way of stating what St. John said in his first letter, viz. that God is love. If God is love, then there must be within God a play of lover, beloved, and love. This is the relationality that obtains among the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

It's often joked that Trinity Sunday is "the preacher's nightmare." But while the Trinity can be viewed as the most arcane and inaccessible Christian doctrine, it's also the most ordinary and obvious. Every Catholic invokes the Trinity whenever he crosses himself in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Moreover, every single baptized person has been baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Through baptism we've been sealed by the Trinity, brought within its dynamic, and sent out on mission. The Trinity is not simply a conundrum for theologians to puzzle over. It names the very heart of the Christian faith. Our God is a community or family of love, and we are invited, through Christ, to share in that love.

JPII NEWS:

We are currently seeking applications for a pre-school assistant for the four year old class. The successful candidate will be under direct supervision of Mrs. Dayberry. The assistant will be required to complete the necessary safe environment program, background checks and professional development required of an early childhood program employee. The position is part-time, 18 hours per week.

Our childcare center is also seeking a person for the Lead Childcare Provider. The successful person will be employed full-time and will be under the direct supervision of Mrs. Dayberry, Early Childhood Director. The successful candidate will be responsible for the children who participate in the childcare program; work 8 hours per day; have an opportunity for full benefits; will work the months of August through the end of May. The successful candidate will work with the director to provide a comprehensive educational, social, and spiritual program to all who attend the center.

Please contact the school office for an application. You may contact Mrs. Dayberry by email at adayberry@johnpauliicatholicsschool.org or calling 270-997-4185.
